New Suites Luberon

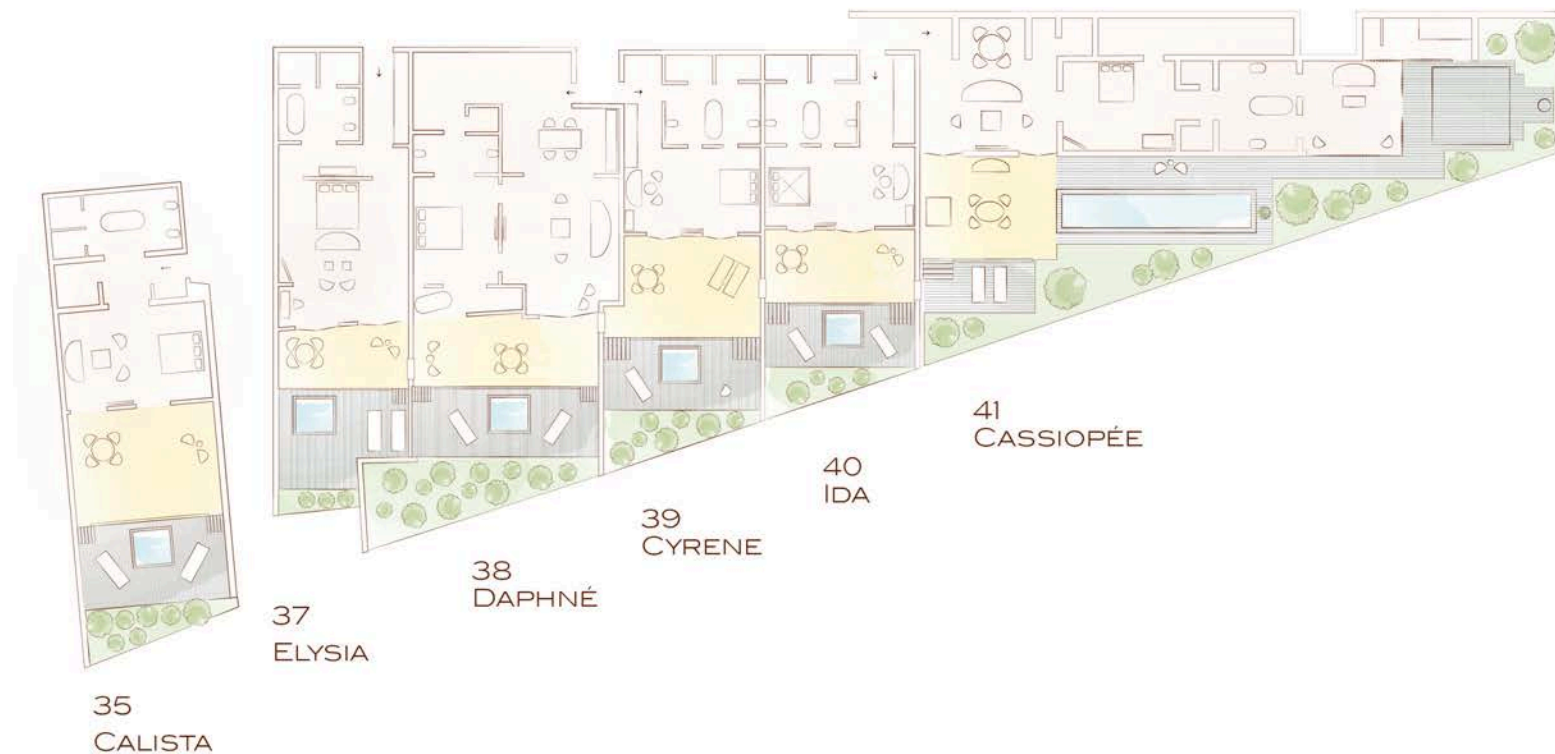

The new, top-tier suites, ranging in size from 645 square feet to 1,184, are in a separate wing of the resort with its own private entrance, and offer private access to the resort's spa—enabling guests to customize their well-being programming.

Spacious and private, these suites are singular in their design and size for the Luberon.

Spacious, elegant, and comfortable, each of these suites feels like a home in Provence.

On the terraces, hydrotherapy baths are designed to emulate the Provençal “aiguier,” a pool dug into natural rock formations. Impressionist painting views of the hills and vineyards serve as the backdrop for each suite, which all come with spacious terraces, while the largest—suite 41—features a lap pool and its own private sauna. If rented together, this exclusive wing of suites can house a total of 10 adults, and several of the suites can be connected via a corridor and the garden, so larger groups can stay en famille.
